As to the cut and fit, the garments are indeed an eminent success, and elicit highly flattering criticisms from all sides. Through untiring efforts we have succeeded in securing an assortment of CHILDREN'S SUITS and OVERCOATS which will meet the appreciation of our patrons, being, in all respects, the most complete and most choice assortment displayed by any house on the Pacific Coast.

PACIFIC COAST NEWS.

Story of a Sailor who was Boated.
ASTORIA, Or., Nov. 28.—In an interview with Michael Gorman, the sailor who was reported to have jumped overboard through ill treatment by the mate of the ship Josie Troop and been recovered in Guaymas Bay, he gave the following particulars: "I went down to Guaymas from San Francisco as second mate of the bark California. The Josie Troop was in the harbor; all its crew had run away on account of bad treatment on the voyage, and I wanted to go back to California and saw the captain of the Troop, who offered me only $20 for the run down the coast. As it was hard for him to get men on account of the ship having a bad name, I said I would not go for less than $50, and I was offered me only $45, and I accepted the offer. Shortly after I went aboard, as soon as I stepped over the rail the mate said, 'You are the California mate, and the crew of the Josie Troop is a lot of scoundrels. He and the second mate then came into me, beating me badly. I was in the morning, I slipped down the anchor chain, and though I knew the bay was full of sharks I preferred death to being kept there. I swam over a mile to an island and from the island another half mile to the shore. After the Troop left I shipped on board the Highland Light and never went to sail with better officers than she has."

Kellogg's Opposition.
NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 28.—J. H. Aikin has submitted a brief to Governor McEnery denying that Kellogg is an inhabitant of Louisiana within the meaning of the U. S. Constitution, or a resident of the Third Congressional District under the provisions of the Louisiana Constitution. The brief recites that there is no evidence that Kellogg ever voted in the State, nor that he owns any property in the State.

NOT FOR FIDELITY.
NEW YORK, Nov. 28.—The Sun's Washington special says of Folger: He is not in accord with most of the officials who surround him, and they do not hesitate to say publicly that he is not a good Secretary of the Treasury, while those of them who are politicians cannot stand his hesitancy about doing what they think ought to be done in the way of making removals and appointments.

A SECRET CRIME.
Wholesale Practice of Abortion in Massachusetts.
BOSTON, Nov. 29.—There is a flutter in certain circles in Lynn and Saugus and other places in Essex county, owing to the discovery by the police of a list of 500 females upon whom abortion has been practiced. The discovery was made in searching the house of a doctor in Lynn, now in police arrest for malpractice. The papers certify in a highly singular and original manner that the owners of said names are the victims in the list, and in the practice line, with day and date of action. Notwithstanding the damning evidence which the police have against the doctor, he declines ever having done anything illegal not realizing, doubtless, that the authorities have secured sufficient evidence to rely he can convict himself. This system of keeping names referred to is certainly the most startling discovery ever made in the criminal annals of Lynn, in connection with the crime of malpractice.

AS ACTRESS SHOT DEAD.
A Little of the William Tell Business that Proved Fatal.
CHICAGO, Nov. 29.—This afternoon, at the Coliseum Theatre, in the fourth act of the play of St. Louis, Frank Frayne, in shooting the apple of the head of Lucy Stearns, personated by Miss Annie Von Behren, missed the mark, and the bullet struck her in the head. She died in five minutes. Frayne was arrested immediately. The curtain fell, and the play stopped. The audience supposed the girl was only slightly hurt. Frayne used a rifle of 22 caliber, and executed a backward shot. No clue to the robbers, the story having foolishly been kept from the papers.

A Court Sensation in Brussels.
BRUSSELS, Nov. 30.—The interest in the Seltzer trial is increasing. The presence of Berny's father court caused great sensation. The appearance of Madame Berny, widow of a murdered man, is awaited with curiosity. It is stated that she is seriously ill.

Arrest of Circassians.
LONDON, Nov. 30.—A number of Circassians have been arrested in Darabash, a wealthy farmer at Rockfort, near Evesham, was entered by burglars and $20,000 worth of notes, cash and jewelry taken. No clue to the robbers, the story having foolishly been kept from the papers.

Lotus Wins a Suit.
BOSTON, Nov. 29.—Lotus, the actress, in an equity suit against Benjamin F. Randall & Co., with which firm she was in partnership in a cotton speculation, has been awarded $13,000. Lotus claimed $20,000.

The Last of the Mohicans.
NEWARK, Nov. 30.—Samuel Brashers, the last direct descendant of James, Chief of the Mohican Indians, died yesterday, aged 77. He was a poor, bearded, ugly, deformed rascal. His funeral was conducted by white men alone, and was very impressive.

Attempted Murder and Suicide.
FLORIDA, Ill., November 30.—James Armstrong, a farmer living on the Washburn bottom, last night made an attempt to kill his wife, from whom he was separated, and to commit suicide. The woman, however, is gravely wounded.

Page's Opinion of the Cyclone.
NEW YORK, Nov. 30.—Congressman Page, of California, was met this morning. Page said his defeat was due to the Germans in consequence of the Sunday-law plank in the platform. He is confident that California will be found on the Republican side in 1884.

Corbett Wins a Death.
NEW YORK, Nov. 29.—This afternoon North Newport was startled by three pistol shots in rapid succession. Shortly afterwards a horse attached to a carriage ran into the yard of John Dodge. In the carriage Miss Lettie Freely, of North Newport, lay dying. She was shot in the left temple. Chas. Crowell jumped from the carriage and drove before reaching the horse. He had a bullet hole in his right temple. Both died inside of thirty minutes. They were inhuman and did not recover consciousness. I propose still to have it sent there by way of Albany, and to be occupied by a President in 1884, when we all hope and believe will be His Honor Grover Cleveland."

Another Fire in San Francisco.
SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 30.—A fire this afternoon at the corner of Howard and Willmore streets, totally destroyed stable and feed store filled with hay. Three valuable horses were burned to death. The stock $5000; insured for a small amount.

The St. Louis and San Francisco Railroad.
INDIAN TERRITORY, Nov. 30.—The St. Louis and San Francisco road has accepted the terms of the Choctaws, and will prepare to construct their road through the Nation at once. The Indians are becoming reconciled to railroads.

The River Congo.
PARIS, November 28th.—The Cabinet to-day decided to send a pacific expedition to survey the ebbled territory on the Congo and report upon the resources. In the Senate to-day the bill ratifying the treaty of De Brazza with the Congo chief Makoko was adopted.

AN OLD, OLD SONG.
My lady's little like a rose;
In the little light that glows,
Well, who was getting lullaby songs,
And sweet her rippling laughter flows.

Her hair is like the light that glows,
In the little light that glows,
Well, who was getting lullaby songs,
And sweet her rippling laughter flows.

But, ah, her heart is like a stone;
It gives no answer to my own;
And so I long and sigh alone,
And her heart is like a stone.

Thoughts for To-day.
How can the whole body of Christian men and women, young and old, be made to realize the infinitely momentous emergency, responsibility and opportunity of the time, with reference to the making of our country in its totality a Christian nation?—[The Advance]

"Made in the image of God." We cannot tell what it means. It is one of those vast thoughts of God we catch the trailing fringes of. It is one of those luminous heights of God's thought up which we gaze, and they are unattainable to us. But we are to think up toward them, and every day stretch in their direction.—[H. W. Warren]

One of Parady's workmen by accident dropped a small highly-valued silver cup into a strong acid bath. In a little while it had utterly disappeared. But when Parady came to get the acid, he found nothing, but cast another acid into the jar, and the silver was soon precipitated—a shapeless mass, instead, of the cup. He had a more beautiful cup, from the hands of the silversmith. May not God be ready to restore to us what we have lost?—[The Advance]

George F. Pentecost.
Ex-Governor Curtis, speaking of Governor-elect Pattison of Pennsylvania, says: "He makes a very fine impression wherever he goes. For a man of his age, he is the oldest-looking man I ever saw. He looks ten years older than his years, and that is of great assistance to him as he went around the State. I think he is going to make a good Governor. He is highly respected by the Presidential electors, and is being of the age to be eligible for the campaign two years hence. This, I think, will enable him to communicate himself on his gubernatorial office."
